Our thoughts go out to Lisa Sultzbaugh and Steph Baum on the death of Buffy, their 6 month old kitten. Sweet and loveable Buffy had a rough start living with an elderly lady who kept this News Year Eve birthday kitten outside. Luckily Buffy lived next door to Forever Love Rescue and they gave Buffy and her sister Cinnamon a helping hand. Lisa nursed all the sick rescues and fortunately Buffy was placed in her loving care. Living with Lisa Buffy learned to coexist with other cats and dogs and would even permit Hunter the Labrador Retriever to lick her face clean. Lisa had a perfect track record of helping ailing kitties return to good health and she tried diligently to get Buffy back on her feet but her start in this life was just too much. Though their time together was short, it was full of quality moments which Lisa will forever treasure.
